

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS ABOUT
ONEWORLD, CODESHARE AND OTHER PARTNER AIRLINES

- 1. What will happen to AA's participation in the oneworld Alliance and its relationships with its codeshare partners or other partner airlines?

Our participation in oneworld and our relationships with our other partners remain unchanged. We will maintain the same strong partnerships during our Chapter 11 filing.
- 2. Can I still accrue miles and redeem mileage awards through oneworld and American's frequent flyer air partners?

Yes, our partnerships with airlines such as British Airways, Cathay Pacific, Finnair, Iberia, Japan Airlines (JAL), LAN, Malév, Qantas, Royal Jordanian and S7 Airlines and others remain unchanged as a result of the Chapter 11 filing.
- 3. Will my elite status with AAdvantage still be recognized by oneworld Alliance partners?

Yes, your elite status with AAdvantage will continue to be recognized by our oneworld partners, and the benefits you receive when flying with them will not change as a result of the Chapter 11 filing.
- 4. Will there be a reduction of routes that AA currently offers through oneworld and its codeshare partners?

We remain deeply committed to meeting your travel needs with the same standards of safe, secure and reliable service, and intend to maintain a strong presence in domestic and international markets. As we and all airlines routinely do, we will continue to evaluate our operations and service, assuring that our network is as efficient and productive as possible.
- 5. Will AA's airline partners continue to honor their ticket reservation and baggage transfer commitments?

Yes. All benefits with partner airlines remain intact.
- 6. If my AA ticket has me flying on another airline for a segment of my trip, is my ticket still valid?

Yes, all tickets involving other carriers (sometimes called interline tickets) will continue to be accepted. Our agreements with our partner airlines remain unchanged as a result of the Chapter 11 filing.
