

PROOF OF NEGATIVE COVID-19 TEST RESULT OR DOCUMENTATION OF RECOVERY FOR AIR PASSENGERS FROM THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA⁵

PASSENGER DISCLOSURE AND ATTESTATION

The information provided below must be accurate and complete to the best of the person's knowledge. Under United States federal law, the attestation must be completed for each air passenger 2 years of age or older who has an itinerary that includes the United States and is boarding an aircraft in the People's Republic of China; or is boarding an aircraft at a Designated Airport and has been in the People's Republic of China in the last 10 calendar days. Failure to complete and present the applicable portion of the attestation, or submitting false or misleading information, could result in delay of travel, denial of boarding, or denial of boarding on future travel, or put the passenger or other people at risk of harm, including serious bodily injury or death. Any passenger who fails to comply with these requirements may be subject to criminal penalties. Willfully providing false or misleading information may lead to criminal fines and imprisonment under, among other provisions, 18 U.S.C. § 1001. Providing this information can help protect you, your friends and family, your communities, and the United States. The U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) appreciates your cooperation.

One attestation form must be filled out for each air passenger 2 years of age or older with an itinerary that includes the United States prior to boarding

- (1) an aircraft in the People's Republic of China; or
- (2) an aircraft at a Designated Airport if the passenger has been in the People's Republic of China in the last 10 days. Designated Airports include Incheon International Airport (ICN) in Seoul, the Republic of Korea; Toronto Pearson International Airport (YYZ) in Canada; and Vancouver International Airport (YVR) in Canada.⁶

The air passenger or the person acting on behalf of the air passenger as a legal representative, such as a parent or guardian, must check A, B, or C and sign the attestation.

Privacy Act Statement for Air Passengers from People’s Republic of China Relating to the Requirement to Provide Proof of a Negative COVID-19 Test Result or Documentation of Recovery

The U. S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) requires airlines and other aircraft operators to collect this information pursuant to 42 C.F.R. 71.20 and 71.31(b), as authorized by 42 U.S.C. § 264. Providing this information is mandatory for all passengers 2 years and older boarding an aircraft into the United States from the People’s Republic of China, or from Designated Airports if they have been in the People’s Republic of China in the last 10 days. Failure to provide this information may prevent you from boarding the plane. Additionally, passengers will be required to attest to providing complete and accurate information, and failure to do so may lead to other consequences, including criminal penalties. CDC will use this information to help prevent the introduction, transmission, and spread of communicable diseases.

The Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. § 552a, governs the collection and use of this information about citizens of the United States and aliens lawfully admitted for permanent residence. The information maintained by CDC will be covered by CDC’s System of Records No. 09-20-0171, Quarantine- and Traveler-Related Activities, Including Records for Contact Tracing Investigation and Notification under 42 C.F.R. Parts 70 and 71. See 72 Fed. Reg. 70867 (Dec. 13, 2007), as amended by 76 Fed. Reg. 4485 (Jan. 25, 2011) and 83 Fed. Reg. 6591 (Feb. 14, 2018). CDC will only disclose information from the system outside the CDC and the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services as the Privacy Act permits, including in accordance with the routine uses published for this system in the Federal Register, and as authorized by law. Such lawful purposes may include, but are not limited to, sharing identifiable information with state and local public health departments, and other cooperating authorities. CDC and cooperating authorities will retain, use, delete, or otherwise destroy the designated information in accordance with federal law and the System of Records Notice (SORN) set forth above. You may contact the system manager at dgmqpolicyoffice@cdc.gov or by mailing Policy Office, Division of Global Migration and Quarantine, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, 1600 Clifton Road NE, MS H16-4, Atlanta, GA 30329, if you have questions about CDC’s use of your data.
